

THE Center for Education Reform

Baltimore: 410-979-7971; carol@edreform.com

Parent voice Parent choice

Community groups are seeking to create charter schools - highly accountable public schools which can provide new choices for parents and teachers

The school board's policy is to "go slow"

The City Council is asking Why.

=====

Monday, June 28, 2004
5 pm
City Hall
City Council Hearing

04-1403 Charter Schools - Why Limit Our Children?

Sponsors: Pugh, Pres. Dixon, Spector, Mitchell, Carter, Rawlings-Blake, D'Adamo, Reisinger, Stokes, Welch, Curran, Harris, Young, Branch, Holton, Abayomi

CITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION - FOR the purpose of requesting that the members of the School Board explain to the Council their decision to limit the number of charter schools in the Baltimore City before conducting the proper financial and educational research to do so. - COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE (041436)

=====

Call for information:
410-979-7971